

This beautiful and impressive but also sensitive Frisian Gelding found himself a new home in the south of Holland, not far from our home base.

We feel very privileged to continue to help train this lovely horse and owner. It is nice to see how a good match will give you so much joy in every day's training. They became a great team.

Abel Frisian Horse

Wednesday, 02 March 2011 14:19

