

Margreet Schouren just recently discovered the art of photography.

Being a professional dressage trainer & rider she always had a big desire to show people what she sees in a horse.

The beauty, the strength its character and possibilities has inspired her for many years. Under the wings of well known professional photographer Paula da Silva she developed in a record time.

She loves showing the characteristics of her subjects in a different style.

Please acces Margreet's Smugmug-page via the link below:

Direct link to SmugMug